Rutgers Students Picket Over CIA

NEWARK — AP — Nine students at Rutgers University's Newark College of Arts and Sciences picketed the school's placement office to protest campus recruiting by the Central Intelligence Agency.

Kenneth Mazay of Newark, chairman of the Rutgers Newark chapter of Students for a Democratic Society, said the students were from his organization.

The students were opposed by several members of a group calling itself Independent Concerned Students.

The pickets appeared shortly after CIA representatives opened the annual college recruiting program at Rutgers yesterday. About 125 businesses and government agencies are expected to interview prospective another morals offense in graduates in the coming weeks.

Mazay said SDS is opposed to CIA recruiting and intends to picket each time the CIA returns.

Lawrence Smith of Lakewood, who said he was a leader of ICS, said the group is out to show the SDS is not representative of campus opinion.
